- 6. On 27 May, the repair shop on Ebert Ring was operated by 30 to 40 soldiers who wore red-bordered black epaulets. It has been observed that radio sets and radio cars were being repaired at the shop. A group of officers also worked at the shop, they were not billeted there.
- 7. On 8 June, ammunition was unloaded from 12 boxcars on the railroad spur which connects Rathenow-Nord railroad station to the Infanterie Maserne. The ammunition boxes were hauled to the target range northeast of the depot on trucks The unloading of ammunition shipments was no longer observed in the area of the former German Army supply depot. On 13 June, 2 passenger coaches were boarded by 15 officers each, and 22 boxcars by about 25 soldiers each at the Rathenow-Nord railroad station. The troops were allegedly to be demobilized. (4)
